1. Col. William Heimlich is leaving in a few days for Europe as a special consultant for the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee. He has asked me to inform Mr. Wisner that the trip is again on, and he will try to keep me advised of any last minute developments. Col. Heimlich expects to find out some greater detail as to the purpose of his mission, particularly insofar as it involves contacting certain refugee Poles.

2. Congressman William Dawson, Chairman of the House Committee on Government Operations will be the luncheon guest on Monday 25 April.
